EDITOR'S NOTEBOOK

Dear Archie Readers,

Last year I received some angry letters from fans who wanted to attend an upcoming comic convention but found out about it too late. I usually announce conventions attended by Archie Comics one month ahead of time. I guess that's not long enough for you to make arrangements to get there. Anyway, for those of you who missed out, I apologize. I'll try to notify you earlier.

The next comic convention that Archie will participate in is scheduled for AUGUST 4-7, 1994. It will be held at the SAN DIEGO CONVENTION CENTER on Harbor Drive in beautiful San Diego, California. If you live or are planning a visit in that area, be sure to stop by. The SAN DIEGO COMIC CON is probably the largest convention to take place each year. Practically every comic publisher will be represented, along with the creative teams that write and illustrate their books.

We're planning to have ARCHIE and SONIC THE HEDGEHOG at the Archie booth to meet with fans and sign autographs. You'll also have a chance to meet one of Archie's most famous writers, GEORGE GLADIR. Oh...and I almost forgot. I'll be there, too. I always enjoy meeting with Archie readers and their parents. So if you have any suggestions, you can let me know face to face. One more thing. If you mention that you read about this convention in my Editor's Notebook, you'll receive a FREE GIFT.

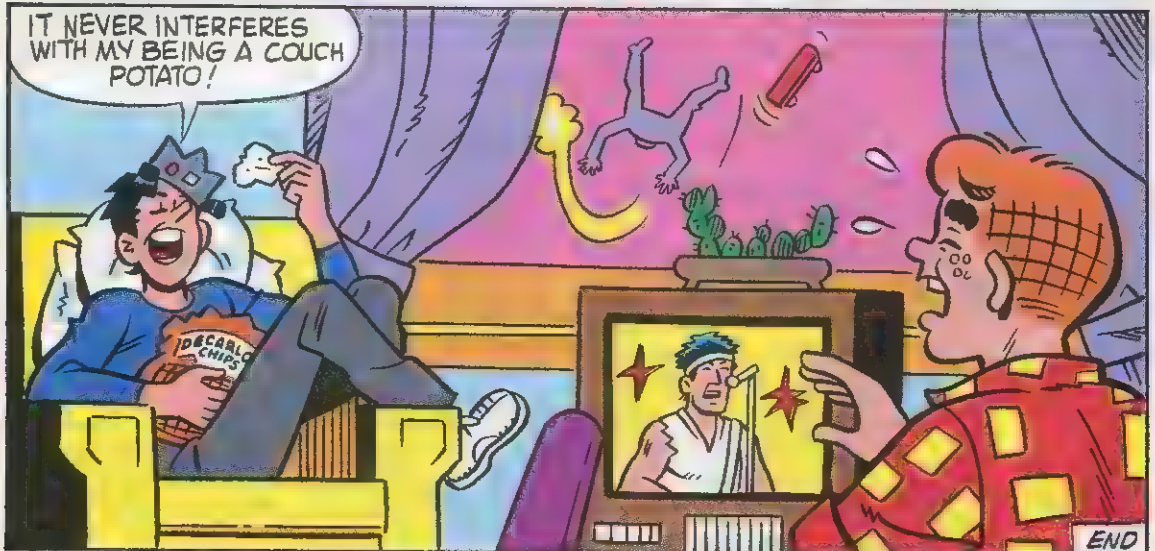

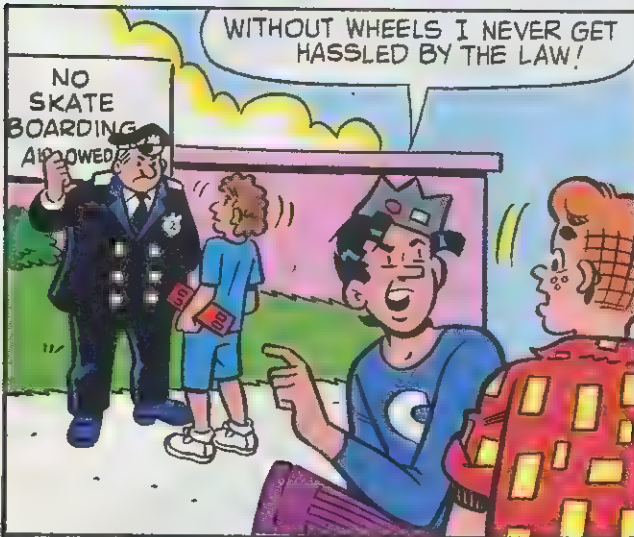

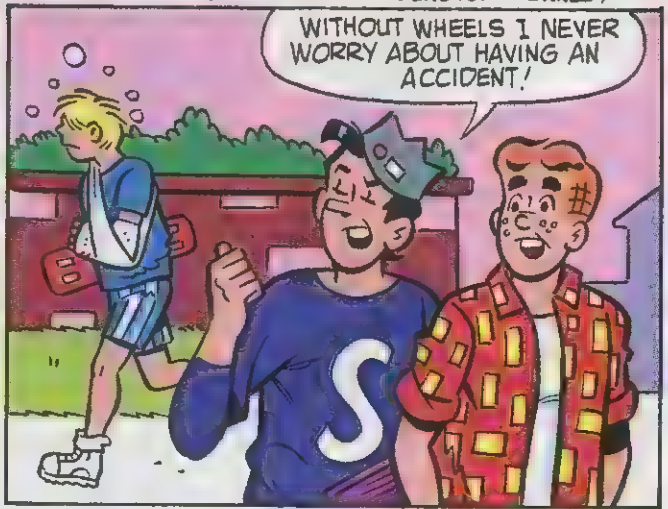

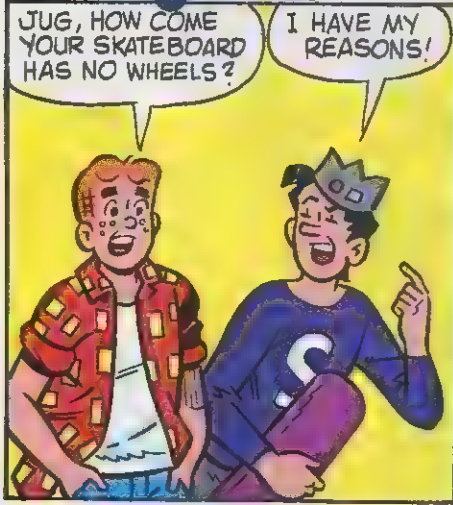

One last thing before I go. Be on the lookout for a new 48-page special, entitled ARCHIE'S SUPER TEENS! It goes on sale in SEPTEMBER, 1994. You'll see Archie and his friends like you've never seen them before. More on that subject next month.

BABIES

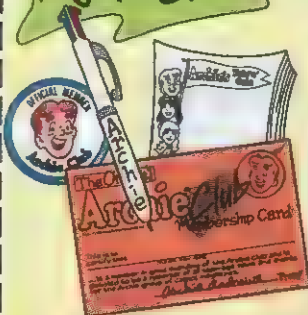

You've got to be very careful when you hold a baby because they're really fragile. Taking care of a baby is a big responsibility. You have to feed them, hold them and even bathe them. And then they cry in the middle of the night to be fed. But it's kind of fun having someone who listens to you and doesn't talk back. But most of all I hate when I have to change my little nephew's diapers. P.U.
